

THE HEILTSUK INDIAN BAND

By-Law 22

Being a by-law respecting dangerous persons on reserve and trespass on the reserves of Heiltsuk Nation, also known as the Heiltsuk Indian Band ("Heiltsuk Nation").

- A. WHEREAS the Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band desires to make a by-law governing dangerous persons on reserve and trespass on reserve, and for the imposition of a penalty for violation thereof;
- B. AND WHEREAS the Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band is responsible for the orderly management of its services, and the safety and well-being of all people, and particularly vulnerable persons, on reserve land, and has the authority to enact by-laws to ensure the community is orderly and secure;
- C. AND WHEREAS the Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band knows and understands the unique geographical nature of the reserve land, including its remoteness and the limited ability to access additional supports and services available in larger centres and those connected by road to cities;
- D. AND WHEREAS the Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band draws upon its powers of self-government and is empowered to make such a by-law pursuant to paragraphs 81(1)(c), (d), (p), (p.1), (q), and (r) of the Indian Act, R.S.C. c. I-5;
- E. AND WHEREAS it is considered to be expedient and necessary for the benefit and safety of the inhabitants of the Heiltsuk Indian Band Reserve to provide for protections in relation to dangerous persons on reserve and trespass on reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band hereby enacts the following by-law:

1. SHORT TITLE

- 1.1 This by-law may be cited as the "Heiltsuk Nation Dangerous Persons and Trespass By-Law."

2. INTERPRETATION

- 2.1 In this by-law:

"Band Council Resolution" means a resolution in writing of a Council, passed by the majority of the Councillors present at a meeting at which a quorum is constituted;

"Council" means the Chief and Council of the Heiltsuk Indian Band, elected in the accordance with the Indian Act;

"dangerous person" means a person that has been convicted as an adult, without receiving a pardon or record suspension, of one or more of the offences listed in section 487.04 of the Criminal Code, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-46;¹

"First Nation" means the Heiltsuk Indian Band, a band within the meaning of the Indian Act;

"officer" means any peace officer or other person charged with the duty to preserve and maintain the public peace, a by-law enforcement officer, or any other person appointed by the Council for the purpose of maintaining law and order on the Reserve;

"lawful justification" includes entitlement to reside on the Reserve pursuant to the Heiltsuk Indian Band Residency By-law;

"prohibited purpose" includes any prohibition made under a bylaw made by Heiltsuk Nation or by a court of competent jurisdiction, and specifically includes the prohibition against residing on the Reserve except in accordance with section 3.03 of the Heiltsuk Indian Band Residency By-law, as set out in that section;

"Reserve" means all reserves of the First Nation, any land held for the use and benefit of the First Nation pursuant to section 36 of the Indian Act, and any future reserve set aside by Her Majesty for the use and benefit of the First Nation; and

"Reserve Resident" means any member of the First Nation that ordinarily resides on the Reserve or any person with lawful authority to use, possess, or occupy land on the Reserve.

3. DANGEROUS PERSONS ON RESERVE

3.1 Subject to the limitations imposed by law and to sections 3.2 to 3.5, Council may, by Band Council Resolution, do one or more of the following:

- (a) post the name of a dangerous person in a public place, communicate by digital transmission, or otherwise inform Reserve Residents of the presence of a dangerous person on the Reserve;

- (b) issue a first order (the “First Order”), which will expire after 90 days, to:
 - (i) prohibit or restrict the dangerous person from attending specified locations or events on the Reserve;
 - (ii) prohibit a dangerous person from being within a prescribed distance from a particular person or persons on Reserve land;
 - (iii) limit the duration for which a dangerous person may occupy the Reserve on a given visit;
 - (iv) limit the number of times a dangerous person may frequent the Reserve within a specified period of time; and/or,
 - (v) banish a dangerous person from using, occupying, or possessing land on the Reserve, with or without exceptions;
- (c) within 15 days of the expiry of the First Order (either before or after the expiry of the First Order), issue a second order (the “Second Order”) renewing the First Order, for a duration to be specified by Council, but not more than one year;
- (d) further renew a Second Order for one or more additional one-year periods, by following the same process for the issuance of a Second Order.

3.2 When considering whether to exercise authority under section 3.1, Council may consider the following:

- 3.2.1 whether the behaviour for which the conviction was imposed, if repeated, poses any threat to the peace or safety of Reserve Residents or to Council's ability to ensure the observance of law and order on Reserve;
- 3.2.2 the circumstances and the particulars of the offence or offences for which the dangerous person has been convicted, including
 - (i) whether the offence or offences occurred on the Reserve;
 - (ii) whether the offence or offences involved a Reserve Resident;
 - (iii) the age of the dangerous person when the offence or offences occurred;
 - (iv) the age of any victim or complainant involved in the offence or offences;

(v) any extenuating circumstances, including but not limited to:

- (1) whether the person is a first-time offender or has a limited criminal record;
- (2) whether the person is of prior good character;
- (3) whether the person entered a guilty plea to the offence or offences in question;
- (4) whether the person has engaged in post-offence rehabilitation efforts;
- (5) whether the person has made acts of restitution or compensation;
- (6) whether the person committed the offence or offences under circumstances of provocation or duress, reduced mental capacity, or reduced moral blameworthiness; and
- (7) whether the person comes from a disadvantaged background.

(vi) the length of time that has elapsed since the commission of the offence or offences, including:

- (1) what the dangerous person has done during that period of time;
- (2) whether the dangerous person has shown any tendencies to repeat the kind of behaviour for which he or she received the conviction or convictions.

3.3 Prior to exercising authority pursuant to section 3.1 (a) or (b), Council shall give the dangerous person at least 5 days prior notice, invite the dangerous person to provide submissions concerning whether the dangerous person represents a threat to the peace and safety of Reserve Residents or to the observance of law and order on the Reserve, and consider any submissions received in making its decision. Such submissions are to be made in writing unless permission is expressly granted to the dangerous person to make oral submissions.

- 3.4 Prior to exercising authority pursuant to section 3.1 (c), Council shall give the dangerous person reasonable prior notice, invite the dangerous person to provide submissions concerning whether the dangerous person represents a threat to the peace and safety of Reserve Residents or to the observance of law and order on the Reserve, and consider any submissions received in making its decision.
- 3.5 Prior to exercising authority pursuant to 3.1 (a), (b), or (c), Council may give notice to impacted Reserve Residents and may consider the views of impacted Reserve Residents concerning whether the dangerous person represents a threat to the peace and safety of Reserve Residents or to the observance of law and order on the Reserve.
- 3.6 Council may deem an individual to be an impacted Reserve Resident if they are
- 3.6.1 a victim of an offence or offences for which the dangerous person has been convicted;
 - 3.6.2 an immediate family member of the dangerous person;
 - 3.6.3 any other Reserve Resident whom Council in its discretion determines has been impacted by the offence or offences for which the dangerous person has been convicted, or who is likely to be impacted by the exercise of Council's authority under section 3.1.
- 3.7 If Council exercises its authority under 3.1 (a) or (b):
- 3.7.1 The dangerous person who is the subject of the Band Council Resolution may submit a written request to Council, requesting that Council reconsider its exercise of authority and related issuance of its BCR;
 - 3.7.2 the dangerous person has 14 calendar days from the date the Band Council Resolution is issued to make this written request for reconsideration;
 - 3.7.3 if Council receives a written request under 3.7.1 it must, within 5 calendar days, invite the dangerous person to provide written submissions regarding why in the view of the dangerous person the decision should be reconsidered;
 - 3.7.4 the Council must then consider any written submissions received from the dangerous person and render within 14 calendar days a decision either upholding its BCR or revoking its BCR.
- 3.8 For the purposes of sections 3.3 and 3.7, Council may extend or abridge a time period as it considers appropriate.

4. ENFORCEMENT

4.1 Where a person who is the subject of an order made pursuant to section 3.1 fails or refuses to comply with such an order, an officer may take such reasonable and lawful measures as are necessary to enforce that order.

5. OFFENCE AND PENALTY

5.1 A person who fails or refuses to comply with an order made under section 3.1, or who resists or interferes with an officer acting under section 4.1, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one (1) thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days or to both.

6. TRESPASSING

6.1 A person commits an offence of trespass and may be ordered to leave the Reserve by an officer if the person does any of the following:

- 6.1.1 enters or attends at the Reserve without lawful justification;
- 6.1.2 enters or attends at the Reserve for a prohibited purpose;
- 6.1.3 enters or attends premises without the occupier's permission; or
- 6.1.4 engages in an activity on or in a premise after the person has had notice from the occupier of the premises that the activity is prohibited.

7. TRESPASSING - ENFORCEMENT

7.1 Where a person who has been ordered to leave the Reserve in accordance with section 6.1 and fails or refuses to comply with such an order, an officer may take such reasonable and lawful measures as are necessary remove that person from the Reserve.

8. TRESPASSING - OFFENCE AND PENALTY

8.1 A person who fails or refuses to comply with an order made under section 6.1, or who resists or interferes with an officer acting under section 7.1, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one (1) thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days or to both.

9. BY-LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

9.1 Council may, by Band Council Resolution, provide for the appointment and the reasonable remuneration of one or more by-law enforcement officers.

10. GENERAL

10.1 If a court determines that a provision of this by-law is invalid for any reason, then the provision shall be severed from the by-law and the validity of the rest of the by-law shall not be affected.

10.2 All references to legislative provisions and other by-laws of the First Nation in this by-law include amendments made thereto from time to time.
